TALK OF THE TOWN

Infant slips from 25 cents up, just received at Perry's.

The Silent Auction Sale is now going on at the store of the Frank McWhorter Co.

The silent auction sale by the Frank McWhorter Co. is not a money making scheme, but simply to close out odd lots. If your size is in the window, you can save money.

Mrs. Bianchi, mother of Paul Bianchi, a former resident of this city, died yesterday of her son's home in Woodstock, and the body will be brought to this city this afternoon for interment in Hope cemetery. Mrs. Bianchi was about 80 years old and came to this country about six years ago to live with her son.

The Peasant Prince, at the Comique to-day and to-morrow. This is one of Selby's best and is commendable from almost every viewpoint. The acting is excellent, the scenery admirable and the costumes and coloring all that could be desired. The plot somewhat resembles "The Lady of Lions," except that after the betrothal of the haughty girl of high degree to the peasant of low degree, the mischief making friends unravel the identity of the peasant, thinking that in so doing their vengeful purpose has been amply accomplished. However, Cupid straightens affairs in a most charming manner. An elegant picture in all.
